As a UI/UX designer with a year's experience at a fintech startup, I have designed comprehensive modules, in collaboration with developers to achieve the desired output. My curiosity, dedication, and problem-solving skills have aided me in this endeavour. Outside of work, I enjoy gaming, bike riding, badminton, writing poetry, and exploring my interest in key-frame animation With a background in engineering, I bring a logical and analytical mindset to my work. Overall, I am a passionate and skilled designer with a diverse set of interests and skills that make me an asset to any team.
